Ward's Party At Tientsin

Transport To Pick Up Consul In 2 Days

TOKYO, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Freedom was just a day or so away today for Angus Ward and his staff from the Red-harassed U. S. consulate in Communist ruled Mukden.

The consul general and his party arrived last night at the Communist North China port of Tientsin.

It meant the end of nearly a year's virtual imprisonment for Ward in the Manchurian capital. The consulate staff was in Mukden when the Chinese Reds marched in. Then it couldn't get out. The Communists finally agreed to "deport" the staff—but not until after they forced Ward to spend a month in jail on what the State department called "trumped up" charges.

State department officials here received word from Tientsin which indicated the entire group of 20 was well and that it encountered no difficulties on the long railroad journey.

It still wasn't certain when the party will board an American ship—or ships—for the long delayed voyage home. It could be tomorrow, but the pickup may not take place until Sunday.

Several vessels were nearing Taku Bar, 16 miles outside Tientsin. This is the designated rendezvous point.

Associated Press Correspondent Tom Lambert radioed from the transport Lakeland Victory that it should reach Taku Bar late tomorrow afternoon.

Bricker Opposed To Taft, AFL Paper Says

CLEVELAND, Dec. 9.—(AP)—The weekly newspaper of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen yesterday claimed Senator John W. Bricker (R-Ohio) "is opposed to Robert Taft as a candidate for the presidency."

The Trainmen News said Bricker sees himself as the choice of a Dixiecrat-Republican coalition to run for that office.

The paper asserted Bricker's characterization of General Dwight D. Eisenhower as the best exponent of Republicanism is a repudiation of Taft, Ohio's senior senator.

Taft has made no mention of any intention of seeking the GOP presidential nomination.

Issues Clear In Australia

Socialism Or Free Enterprise, Question

SYDNEY, Australia, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Socialism or free enterprise?

That is a clearcut issue in Australia's critical general election tomorrow.

The Labor party of Prime Minister J. B. Chifley, a former locomotive driver, has been in power eight years. It has a longrange program of nationalization. It believes government controls are needed to stabilize the nation's economy and insure full employment.

The opposition promises to halt nationalization and the Australian leftward trend. Labor and socialism went down to defeat in neighboring New Zealand last week and the opposition here hopes that is a sign of the future.

The anti-labor opposition in Australia comes from two parties, the Liberal party and the Country party, which promise to work in union should labor be defeated. The Liberals are led by former Prime Minister Robert G. Menzies, a lawyer. Leader of the Country party—strong in rural areas—is Arthur W. Fadden, an accountant. Menzies would be the next prime minister should the coalition win.

Nearly 5,000,000 voters will ballot in the two-house parliamentary election, which is held every three years.

This election has stirred the public more than any since the Commonwealth was born.

Twenty-four officers were present from Salem, Alliance, Sebring, Washingtonville, Leetonia, Columbiana, East Palestine, and Lisbon.

Parnell Thomas Gets 6 To 18 Months Sentence

Wife Says She Will Seek His Job In Special Election

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Rep. J. Parnell Thomas got six to 18 months in jail and a $10,000 fine today for cheating the government by "padding" his office pay roll.

Immediately after the sentence was pronounced, Thomas' wife announced:

"I intend to seek the congressional seat about to be vacated by my husband."

Mrs. Thomas told reporters her husband's resignation is in the mails.

Thomas is 54. His wife is 48.

Federal Judge Alexander Holtz gave an ear-burning lecture to Thomas along with the jail term and the fine.

He told the little man who seven times was elected to the house as a Republican from New Jersey that he knew he had a good record in the first world war and had done "much good work" on congress as chairman of the house Un-American activities committee.

But, the judge said sternly: "These can't be properly considered mitigating circumstances."

In fact, he said, as chairman of a congressional committee, Thomas "had a duty to set an example of upright living."

Holtzoff concluded: "J. Parnell Thomas, it is the judgment of this court that you be imprisoned in an institution to be determined by the attorney general for a term of not less than six months and not more than 18 months, and that you be fined $10,000 and that you stand committed until the fine is paid."

zThomas' lawyer, William H. Collins, had pleaded with the judge not to punish the congressman by jail and fine.

Collins described Thomas as "broken in body and spirit."

Weakened by a long illness, his face was drawn and he had the look of a man exhausted by extreme weariness.

But Thomas took the sentence with no show of emotion or change of expression.

Mrs. Thomas, the one-time Amelia Wilson Stiles of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., was almost cheerful as she talked to reporters outside the court after the case was over and announced her intention of seeking the congressional seat her husband is leaving for a jail cell.

Atomic Hunt Turns Toward Canada Today

Aid To Russia Deal May Be Big Political Meat During 1950

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—(AP)—House spy probes tracing reported uranium leaks to Russia turned their eyes toward Canada today amid indications that their inquiry may become a hot 1950 political issue.

Two investigators for the Un-American activities committee were reported in Canada, where an official confirmed yesterday that 1,000 pounds of uranium compounds were shipped to Russia via Great Falls, Mont., in 1943.

Committee sources insisted these two developments were not related, but reports persisted that the committee may renew its once-abandoned effort to obtain records of a court action in New York by the Canadian government in connection with uranium sales.

Louis J. Russell, senior committee investigator, has said the probe of the Canadian angle has been "reactivated."

Investigators are due to return before the committee's next hearing December 19, when two former minor officials connected with the Lend-Lease program are to be quizzed.

On that date, also, the committee may reach a final decision on former Vice President Henry A. Wallace's request for a hearing. Last night Wallace objected to the committee's delay in hearing him. He told the committee the delay made the committee "a party to this attempt at character assassination."

Russell told the committee last Monday a Canadian company supplied 1,000 pounds of uranium compounds for shipment to the Soviet union. Later, he said, the Canadian government filed a civil action in New York against an official of the company but the court records were impounded following settlement of the case.

The committee tried to get the records once before, Russell said, but gave up when the State department intervened "in the interest of the national security of Canada."

Confirmation of the Canadian uranium sales, about which the committee has received previous testimony, came yesterday from C. D. Howe, trade minister of Ottawa.

Jaycee Directors Name New Secretary

Junior Chamber of Commerce directors appointed George Karlis as Jaycee secretary to fill the unexpired term of Richard Unger following the club meeting last night at the Lape Hotel.

Unger, manager of the Travel Service office here, is returning to New York city.

Miss Lillian Schroeder, executive secretary of the Columbiana County Public Health League, presented a talk and two movies in the meeting program.

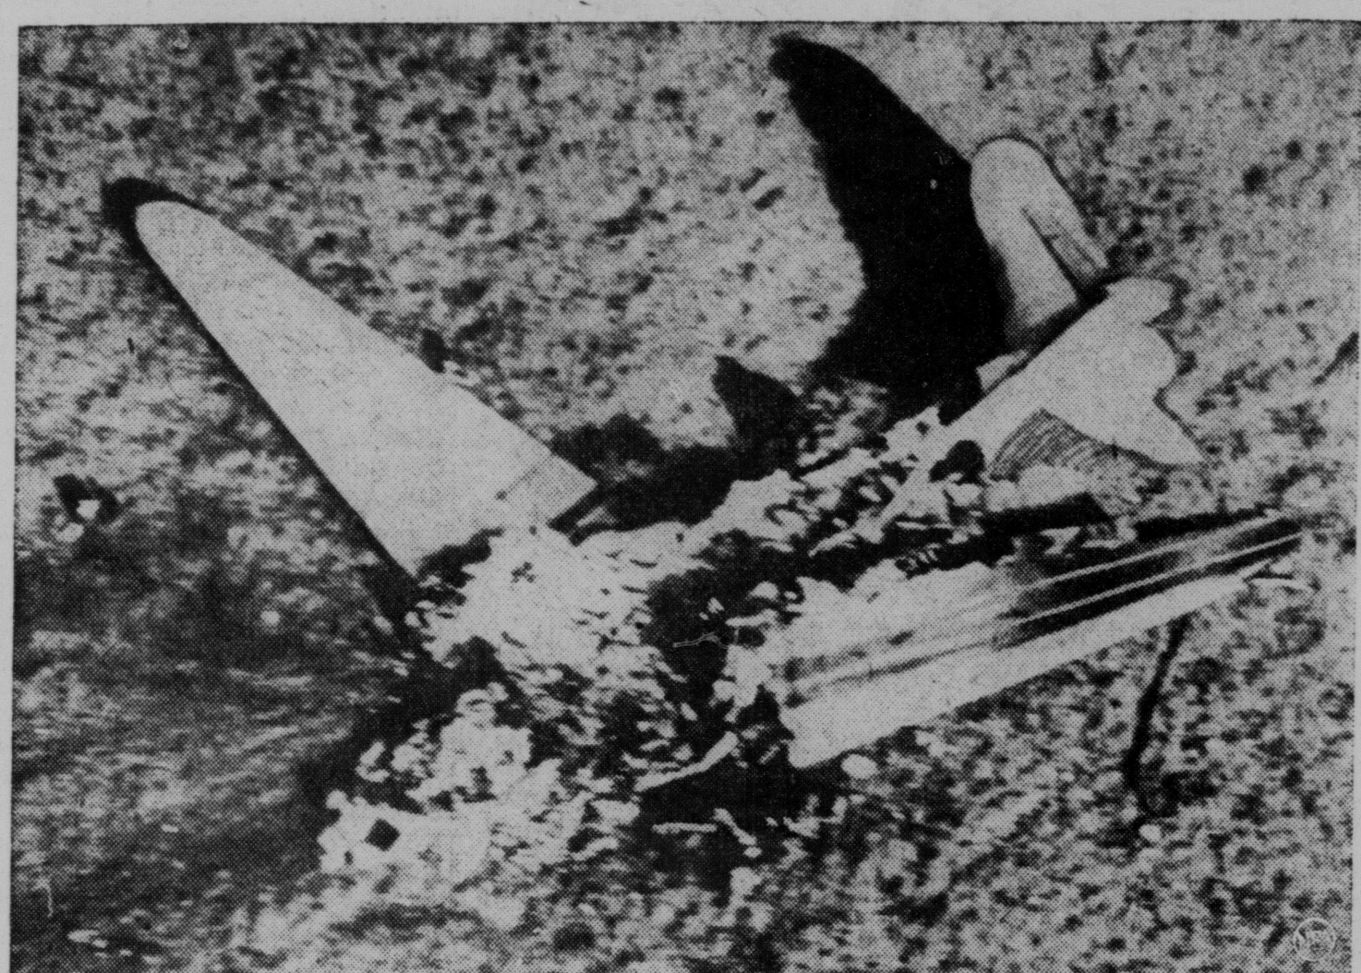

She said recent studies have revealed tuberculosis as a disease which takes a heavy toll among older men. However, tuberculosis is still the chief disease killer among people between the ages of 15 and 45, running second only to accidents, Miss Schroeder said.

She reminded her audience that anybody can contract it since it is a communicable disease and can be controlled by isolation of known cases, X-rays and a program of education.

Truman Hears Ohio Party Woes

Leader Reports On Democrat Weaknesses

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Ohio Democrats, whose chief goal for 1950 is to block the reelection of Republican Senator Taft, may hear more about their shortcomings as described in a report to President Truman.

Victor H. Harding, executive director of the Democratic national congressional committee, plans more trips to Ohio, and more reports to the President, similar to the one he filed last week.

In it he seemed to pull few punches. A sample:

"The Democratic organization in Summit county (Akron) spends more time quarreling over patronage than it spends in fighting the Republicans. This may account for Republican successes in Akron."

Harding told the president "The Democratic city organization in Youngstown does not command popular respect."

He found, Harding said, that in central Ohio's 17th district "the Roosevelt administration was never popular" and that "party strength has slipped until the Republicans elect, in every election, a majority of officers in each county."

Harding added that he even found a "considerable number of representative Democrats" have supported the district's Republican Rep. McGregor.

Tartly, Harding observed that "if proper attention were paid to organization, the recent Republican habits of Franklin county could be broken."

In the eighth district, he said he found "in recent years the Democratic campaigners have been most ineffective and our congressional candidates have not always been able to command respect."

Meteor Show Slated For All U.S. Tonight

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—(AP)—A whole flock of meteors with flaming tails are due to begin cavorting about the skies tonight.

The National Bureau of Standards figures the meteors, part of what astronomers call the geminid shower, will be visible at more than one a minute from 8 p. m. until midnight local time, wherever you are.

The shower is set for a four-night stand. The Bureau of Standards forecasts a "spectacular" show.

City's Yule Tree To Be Up Next Week

Salem's 35-foot community Christmas tree this year will come from Kentucky, according to Joe Kelley, Memorial building manager. It is expected to arrive in the next few days and will be placed on the lawn at the recreation center early next week.

The Ohio Edison company donates the power to light the tree, which will be strung with beautifully colored bulbs.

For the past 12 years Salem's Christmas tree came from the L. J. Kirk farm, near Fairfield. Kirk is out of trees now, Kelley explained.

It takes eight years to grow a Yule tree from seed, according to a local nurseryman.

Origin of the Christmas tree in Germany is ascribed to Martin Luther. The Great Reformer, so the story goes, one Christmas Eve wandered out and became so entranced with the wonder and beauty of the sky that he returned home to set up a tree illuminated with candles to represent the gracious heavens that had set forth "The Little Lord Jesus."

The Ohio Guide gives this interesting note about the first Christmas tree in America:

"At Wooster, in a candle-lit Bavarian home, in 1814, appeared what is claimed to have been America's first Christmas tree. August Ingard, a young German immigrant, disappointed at the austerity of the American Christmas celebration, cut down a small spruce tree from a nearby wood, had the blacksmith fashion a shining metal star for its top, and strung the branches with paper decorations. The custom spread to many parts of Ohio, and then over the nation."

Industrialist Pleads Guilty

Rich Bulgarian 7th In Trials To Confess

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Dec. 9.—(AP)—One of Bulgaria's richest men admitted on trial today that he joined the Communist party World War II, then recruited former industrialists for an anti-Russian sabotage program that cost his country's economy more than $45,000,000.

Ivan Gevrenov, 65, entered the seventh guilty plea in Bulgaria's trial of 11 former government and business leaders on charges of treason, and espionage and sabotage.

All are accused of plotting to take Bulgaria out of the Russian orbit and put it under the influence of Yugoslav Premier Marshal Tito.

The government called Gevrenov, who once headed Bulgaria's rubber industry, one of the greatest saboteurs in the country.

Gevrenov told the court today that in 1947 he supplied the British intelligence service with information on the production capacity of Bulgaria's most important industrial enterprises. Such information is considered a state secret in Communist countries.

The industrial baron said he joined the Communist party after the Russian liberation of Bulgaria in 1944.

Kiwanis Hears Talk On Salvation Army

Lt. Hubert S. Knickerbocker of the Salvation Army spoke on the "Work of the Salvation Army at Christmas" at the Kiwanis Club meeting Thursday noon at the Memorial building.

He said a new program will be begun this year in which a one-day toy workshop will be set up shortly before Christmas with the help of Salem women. On Christmas day itself, parents of less fortunate children, who have been missed in earlier Christmas parties and toy distributions, will be invited to visit Army headquarters and get an already-wrapped toy.

Preceding his talk, a Salvation Army brass quintet composed of Lt. Knickerbocker, Capt. Andrew Miller of Dover, Lt. Kenneth Lance of Steubenville, Lt. William Boone of Cleveland and former Capt. Robert Barton of Salem, presented selected numbers. Lt. Lance offered a baritone solo.

Kiwanians are sending Christmas checks to the Salvation Army, Columbiana County Welfare Department and the Community Scholarship fund.

Arranging the program was a committee composed of Fred Limestahl, Walter Null and William Wark.

Policy Tip Comes After Truman Talk With Budget Chief

KEY WEST, Fla., Dec. 9.—(AP)—Budget Director Frank Pace said after a conference with President Truman today he saw no prospect of a balanced budget next year without an increase in taxes.

Pace told a news conference: "The probability of a balanced budget in 1951 is not great—lacking new taxes."

Pace said he was not aware whether Mr. Truman will ask higher taxes in his "State of the Union" message.

The administration's budget, which goes to Congress in January, this made clear, will require continued deficit financing unless new taxes are levied.

Mr. Truman has said he saw no way of wiping out the prospective deficit for this fiscal year of $5,500,000,000 without higher taxes.

He is being urged to recommend increased levies on corporate profits.

Pace would not forecast the size of the new budget—saying a final figure had not been arrived at—but he said it would not exceed $45,000,000,000 compared with a revised budget of $43,500,000,000 for the current fiscal year.

Eyes Eisenhower bid

Intimates said today President Truman regards General Dwight D. Eisenhower an active candidate for the presidency.

They added that he regards Eisenhower's recent "hot dogs and beer" speech as part of the former chief of staff's buildup for the Republican presidential nomination.

The President, they continued, will answer Eisenhower in his "State of the Union" message to Congress in January.

Charles G. Ross, the President's press secretary, said that speech will "fully expound the President's philosophies of government."

Mr. Truman's long-time feeling of admiration for Eisenhower as an Army man and a builder of morale was emphasized by those who are close to him.

But these same persons say the President regards the ex-soldier turned educator as strictly an amateur in politics.

Not even the closest day-to-day conferees of the President can say whether he will seek the nomination again in 1952.

Most of them tell reporters he has been more than a little concerned by Eisenhower's recent speeches, in which the general has appeared to line up with former Secretary of States James F. Byrnes in criticism of the Truman "Fair Deal."

Two Hurt In 3-Car Collision Thursday

Two persons were injured in a three-car collision at 968 S. Lincoln ave., at 1:30 p. m. Thursday, police reported.

A car driven by Mrs. Jean Dangel of Dearborn, Mich., swerved to avoid a coal truck, skidded and smashed into a parked auto owned by Mrs. Frank Brian of 621 N. Union ave.

The impact drove the Brian car against a telephone pole.

A car following, driven by Nathan Sparr of Cleveland, rammed into the rear of the Dangel auto. Mrs. Dangel suffered contusions of the head and abdomen and her husband sustained a lip abrasion. They were treated at the Central Clinic.

All three cars were damaged. Cars driven by Laura B. Gregory of R. D. 3, Salem, and Harry R. Brudery of Leetonia collided on Sugarfree alley at N. Lundy at 4:53 p. m. Thursday.

The left front fender and bumper of the Gregory car was damaged, along with the grille, radiator, bumper and left front fender of Brudery's auto.

OEA Sets New Ohio Program

Officers Elected; Aims Set For 1950

COLUMBUS, Dec. 9—(AP)—Superintendent George C. Beery of Franklin county schools was to be elected president of the Ohio Education Association at its 28th annual meeting here today.

John C. Griffith, Akron Garfield High school basketball coach, and John D. Blackford, superintendent at Mariemont, both were nominated for vice president.

The OEA executive committee last night suggested a six-point program, providing for:

(1) A state-wide program to improve the quality of public school educational programs, to be carried out by a nine-member OEA commission;

(2) Creation of a "non-political state board of education" by amendment of the State Constitution;

(3) Legislative enactment of a state minimum salary schedule for teachers;

(4) Modernization of the state building code;

(5) Study of the advisability of making equal payments for both elementary and high school pupils under the state foundation law, and

(6) Making optional with county budget commissions the provision now requiring reduction of voted school operating levies after tax valuations are increased through re-assessment.

Margaret Boyd, Steubenville High school teacher and retiring OEA president, told delegates that improvement of educational programs of Ohio's schools is "one of the most vital tasks before us today."

And Still No Jobs

Latest figures from the U. S. Labor department's Bureau of Employment Security show that during the third quarter of the year about half a million persons used up the last of their unemployment compensation.

This followed a rise from 369,000 to 423,000 in the first and second quarters. The highest total of used-up unemployment compensation accounts in any quarter during 1948 was 250,000.

In view of the probability that this statistic may keep on getting larger, it looms as the next prime source of statistical confusion in the country. It will be pointed to as an excuse for all kinds of things that government officials and their political allies would like to do if they had an excuse.

Before they take up the hue and cry, however, they should be asked to explain exactly what they think unemployment compensation was intended to be and to do when it was set up as a new national policy some 12 years ago.

Some of the evidently think it was a form of pump-priming. That isn't so. It was supposed to tide over an unemployed worker while he was looking for a job. If he hadn't found one when he had used up his claim, he would have to qualify for relief. It was solely for the benefit of persons looking for work and hoping to find it—not avoid it.

In the meantime, bureaucrats have done some astonishing things with the intent of the intent of the original system of unemployment compensation—things which threaten to give the system a black eye and do harm to bona fide workers whose rights to unemployment compensation are being jeopardized by chiselers and giveaway artists.

Politicos In Exile

The arrival in this country of Li Tsung-Jen, acting president of Nationalist China, helps to clear up popular confusion about Chinese policy.

President Li succeeded Chiang Kai-Shek, when the latter went into exile in Formosa. The two men are opposed to each other, reflecting in their opposition the fact there was no ability to govern in the Nationalist regime.

Chiang, it is rumored, now may take over the acting presidency of Nationalist China from the now absent acting president. If so, he would be forced to govern from some point outside China. Neither he nor Li can return to China.

The great difficulty which Americans meet when they try to understand the issue of their own government's Chinese policy is the absence of a Chinese government, other than that which asserts itself in the name of the Communist party. They do not understand that the success of the Communist military campaign in China has wiped out the possibility of opposing Communism in China through the Chinese themselves.

Undoubtedly there are millions of Chinese potentially willing to resist the Communists who have taken control of the key areas of their vast country. But without leadership, they are helpless. And without leadership in China capable of opposing the Communists, the United States government is helpless, too, for all immediate purposes.

Checker-Playing Bongo

By Hal Boyle

BONGO CAME BACK the other night. I hadn't seen him for a year.

Quickly I put my pillow over my face and counted: "1—2 3—4—5—6 7—8—9—10." But when I looked again he was still there, filling the doorway with his vast bulk.

Bongo is a phosphorescent gorilla with searchlight eyes and teeth like translucent baseball bats. He waddled noisily over to the bed, sat down on my knees and opened a checkerboard.

"Play!" he commanded. It is the only word Bongo knows.

Reluctantly I made the first move and Bongo countered. Back and forth the checkers marched. Dawn streamed through the windows just as the alarm clock rang and Bongo finished winning his 17th straight game. He sneered and ambled out of the room.

My wife awoke and saw me shivering and haggard-eyed. "What's the matter with you?" "I been playing checkers with Bongo."

"Oh, dear," said Frances, "you're sick again. You've got a fever." The thermometer showed she was right.

SO FOR THE NEXT two days she stoked me with orange juice and aspirin. Bongo stayed away during the daytime, but each night he came back.

It's a funny thing about him. When other people I know fall sick, roses and boxes of fruit and scores of friends come to call on them. Sickness can be fun under those circumstances. But when I get ill the only one I'm sure will come is dumb old Bongo with his checkerboard.

He first came when I had the measles as a child, and he's been coming ever since. Nobody enjoys my illnesses more than Bongo.

Frances frankly doesn't believe there really is a Bongo at all. "He is just a mental guilt complex or something you get when you don't feel well," she said. But not even a guilt complex could play checkers as lousy as Bongo. Only a real ape could be as ignorant as he is.

Bongo plays worse every year. He also cheats. Whenever he thinks I have him cornered, he turns his searchlight eyes away and makes a few sudden moves in the darkness. When he turns his eyes back to the board—he's got me cornered.

When I told this to Frances, she said: "I certainly wouldn't play checkers with a monkey that didn't observe the rules. Don't you have any pride?"

I DO, INDEED—BUT not when I'm alone with a gorilla. And I am haunted by a fear that sometime I'll make a mistake and win a game. I don't think Bongo would like that. Once I had his last checker surrounded by three kings, and Bongo's fangs began to glow. I managed to drop the game.

Well, last night Bongo was late in arriving. It was almost morning when he came over and squatted on my bed. He spread open the board and grunted, "play!"

Keep Them Talking

The most interesting immediate result of the sniffing expeditions hastily organized in the wake of a former Air Force officer's charge that Russians took everything but the kitchen sink when they had the run of the country during the war is a buzz of postponed discussion.

Before it dies down, all sorts of things previously kept quiet may be brought into the open. Americans may get some unexpected light on obscure matters that never would have been mentioned by those who knew about them if someone hadn't spilled the beans. It will be in the public interest to keep the bean spillers talking.

A great many things had to be taken on faith during World War II because that's the way they were presented by public officials. A man like Henry A. Wallace, for example, had to be taken on faith. Even though he was vice president of the United States, it takes a lot of faith sometimes—and when he became the darling of the Communists in 1948 it was clear that he betrayed the faith.

The late Harry Hopkins was a drain on faith, too. His patriotism was above reproach, but not his judgment. The credo that Franklin D. Roosevelt was solely competent to deal with Josef Stalin also took faith, as did the accompanying credo that Mr. Roosevelt and his administration always knew exactly what they were doing and therefore were impervious to doubt.

There is no lack of material to be brought to light, to help historians make their judgments. What started out as a more or less routine "disclosure" and already has become the subject of congressional investigation, might grow up into a first-class airing of a lot of musty muddling.

U.S. Defense Team 'Quarterback'

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON
EITHER Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson is deliberately ignoring the letter and the spirit of the "unification" law or he has unwittingly allowed some unnamed "ghost writer" to prepare a speech for him that misconstrues the law of the land with reference to the duties and responsibilities of Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Mr. Johnson's speech, delivered before the National Association of Manufacturers in New York this week, was replete with analogies to football games and plays. The secretary of defense said:

"The job of command is to make a unified team out of these capable individual players . . ."

"That job of leadership and command is in the hands of the civilian and military heads of the Department of Defense, and the three services that compose it—and of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, headed by that brilliant quarterback, one of the best men on any all-time, All-American military team—General Omar Bradley."

THERE IS NO PROVISION of law for anyone on the joint chiefs resembling a quarterback, to call signals or direct the play. Here is what the new "unification" law, enacted on Aug. 10, 1949, says about the job of the chairman of the joint chiefs of staff:

"There is hereby established within the Department of Defense the Joint Chiefs of Staff, which shall consist of the chairman, who shall be the presiding officer thereof but who shall have no vote; the chief of staff, United States Army; the chief of naval operations; and the chief of the staff, United States Air Force. The Joint Chiefs of Staff shall be the principal military advisers to the President, the National Security Council, and the Secretary of Defense."

After specifying that the chairman of the joint chiefs shall outrank all other officers from the standpoint of grade, the law then says: "Provided, that the chairman shall not exercise military command over the joint chiefs of staff or over any of the military services."

The preamble of the law states that "it is the intent of congress . . . not to establish a single chief of staff over the armed forces."

Since a quarterback is a member of the team on the playing field and calls the signals, it is difficult to see how that title can now be properly applied to the chairman of the joint chiefs. He not only has no vote in the councils of that team but he is specifically prohibited from exercising any command over the joint chiefs or over any of the armed services.

GENERAL BRADLEY raised the question of the identity of the "quarterback" when, in testifying before the house armed services committee in October, he referred to "Fancy Dances" who won't hit the line with all they have on every play, unless they can call the signals. Plainly if the chief of naval operations cannot call the signals for some other armed service, then no other member of the joint chiefs—and least of all its chairman, who has neither vote nor right of command—can act as quarterback and "call the signals."

The matter is hot personal at all. General Bradley is a brilliant strategist of land army operations. He is not, however, qualified to tell either the navy or the air force or both how to operate, for he has had no command training or experience in air operations over land or sea. Even if he did have such an unprecedented experience, he would be disqualified by the terms of the unification law itself from attempting to foist his concepts upon any of the three armed services, including the army itself.

Under the Constitution, there can be only one "quarterback," and he is the commander-in-chief of the Army and the Navy. He may be advised on military matters by all members of the joint chiefs of staff—each of whom is, however, coordinate with the other in command powers and in the right to advise on matters of planning or strategy and in giving the necessary signals to his own platoon as an integral part of America's three-platoon team.

The Common Touch

By Ed Creagh

THE trouble with the United Nations," said William J. (Boxer) Sheridan, taxi-driver, Brooklyn booster and student of world affairs, "is limousines."

"I mean those big, long, black, expensive limousines that the delegates ride in, with the little flag of their country fluttering on the right front fender, and the liveried chauffeur, and the white wall tires. Arrrrrrh!"

"Well," I said, "you could hardly expect such distinguished foreign visitors to ride in jalopies. I mean, they have a position to uphold, a certain—ah—dignity, a—"

"Arrrrrrh!" the gray hair on the back of Boxer's neck bristled. "Position. Dignity. That's just the trouble."

"If I had my way your fine delegates would ride to and from their great meetings on the subway, cheek-by-jowl with the rest of us. Yes, and at rush hour, too, all piled in together like clothespins in a basket."

"Then," said Boxer, shifting his vocal gears into high, "maybe some of that hifalutin' nonsense about 'national sovereignty' and such like would be jiggled out of them, and they could get down to brass tacks."

I thought it over while the cab whizzed through a three-inch gap between two Fifth avenue buses.

"You mean," I said, "that a diplomat runs the risk of losing the common touch?"

"Right on the button, pal. All by himself in the back seat of a limousine, a guy is a big shot. He's got to think in big terms—so big that pretty soon they don't mean anything."

"Okay, put this same guy on the subway. Squeezed right in with guys who are worried about the grocery bill, the Dodgers, their bosses. How are his big, flowery speeches going to sound to him then?"

"I'd go farther. I'd take these delegates out of their fancy hotel suites and put them up, say, in a fleabag over on Eighth Ave. I'd snatch the seven-course dinners right out from under their noses and show them the way to the automat."

"Maybe," said Boxer, joyously crowding a big, black limousine to the curb, "maybe if these delegates lived like people they would start thinking like people. And then we might get less yakky-yak and more peace."

Mary, the Mother

BY WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.

THE STORY OF THE SAVIOR

"And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger." (Luke 2:7.)

Mary had rejoiced in praise when told that she should bear the Christ-child. (Luke 1:46, 55.) "My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour . . ."

She was yet to hear the sad prophecy by Simeon: "Yea, a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also." (Luke 2:35.) The mother of Christ was a mother of sorrow as well as rejoicing.

But "Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart." (Luke 2:19.)

America's 30-Year War

Investigators On Job Since 1938

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON

ALTHOUGH Martin Dies, the Texas Democrat, has been out of Congress for five years, the words "Dies Committee" are still swear words.

Communists swear at the committee; anti-Communists swear by it. Officially known as the House Un-American Affairs Committee, the investigating body has come by its dubious distinction by devious ways.

Dies asked the House, in May, 1938, to set up a seven-man committee to:

1. Examine the extent, character and objectives of un-American propaganda activities in the United States.
2. Study the extent of dissemination of propaganda from abroad attacking the U. S. form the constitutional government.
3. Study "all other questions in relation thereto."

IN 11 YEARS the committee has spent $1,250,000, issued 63 reports, amassed a 30-volume library (26,000 pages) of public hearing transcript, and compiled a file listing hundreds of thousands who are suspect as Communist or pro-Fascist.

Some good has been done. But the committee unquestionably has pulled some of the finest boners of our time. The Bill of Rights has been kicked around like a paid gas bill, from time to time, and even the proponents who say the end justifies the means do not seem to have the ring of conviction in their voices.

One of the big criticisms against the committee is that its chairmen and members have used it for personal publicity. Whether this charge is true or not, it is a fact that the committee's force has depended largely on publicizing Communist activities, sometimes sensibly and sometimes merely sensationally.

It is hard to attempt to list the concrete accomplishments of the committee, because most of them have been at best short-lived. But organization under foreign control engaged in political activity. 1941

Made 10 recommendations to Congress, only one of which was acted upon—extension of the committee's life. 1942

Goaded the Justice Department into conducting a personal investigation of 4600 employees whose loyalty was questioned. The FBI looked into the lives of 2100 Federal servants, as a result of which 36 were fired and 13 disciplined. 1943

Little if any action, because Russia was an ally. 1944

Dito. Dies, ill, announced he would not run for Congress again. 1945

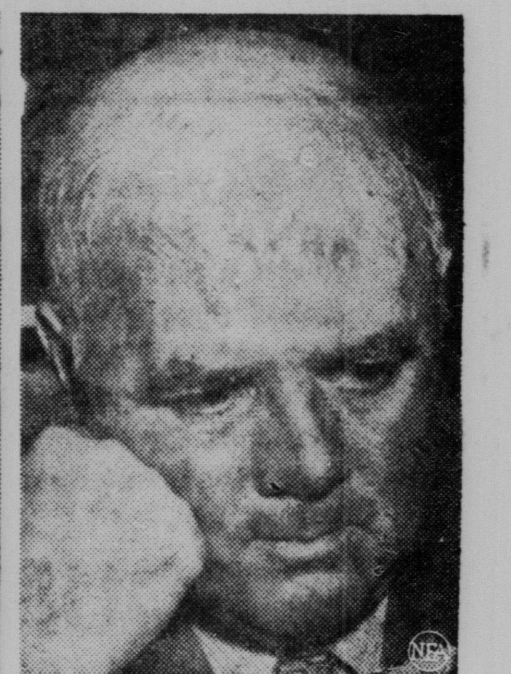

Made a permanent organization by the shrewd manipulation of Rep. John M. Rankin (Dem., Miss.). Rep. Joseph J. Hart (Dem., N. J.) succeeded to the chairmanship, did nothing, resigned in six months. Judge John S. Wood (Dem., Ga.) followed with the same achievement, though he did not resign. 1946

So harassed the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, which was operating within the law, that the American public became aware of its intentions. 1947

Year of the Big Wind. Under Rep. J. Parnell Thomas (Rep., N. J.) the committee set out to prove the Republican contention that the Truman Administration was infested with Commies. The big Hollywood investigaas a goad to other agencies which had been more or less supine in the fight against Commies, the record is slightly more encouraging.

YEAR BY YEAR the committee's highlights stack up somewhat as follows:

1938
Revealed the recruitment of soldiers here by Loyalist Spain in violation of the neutrality laws. No good came of this; the executive branch moved so slowly for indictments that the Justice Department finally dropped the whole business.

Heard witnesses tell of Communist infiltration into the Workers' Alliance of the Unemployed, the Farmer-Labor party in Minnesota and the labor movement generally. The CIO would not admit the truth of these charges until 10 years later.

Put Earl Browder behind bars for his first time as a Communist leader. His confession to passport fraud before the committee got him a four-year sentence, ended by President Roosevelt's pardon after less than two.

1940
Issued its 1000-page "Red Paper," containing 281 documents showing Communist intent to overthrow the government by violence.

Saw passage of the Voorhis Act, requiring registration with the Justice Department of every tion ran a week in May and played a two-week return engagement in October. This turned into a fiasco when the committee "tried" some 40 witnesses without permitting cross-examination of accusers or the right to make statements. Most of the witnesses fell back on their constitutional rights and refused to testify; the 10 Hollywood writers who declined to answer questions about their Communist affiliations were cited for contempt. 1948

The big spy stories, headlined by: (1) Elizabeth Bentley's tale of being a Commie courier; (2) the Alger Hiss-Whittaker Chambers-Papers-in-the-Pumpkin revelations; (3) the charges against Dr. Edward U. Condon, of the Bureau of Standards, as a "weak link" in the atomic security chain; (4) unsubstantiated charges by Member John McDowell (Rep., Pa.) that the U. S. shipped Russia 2720 pounds of uranium during the war.

A major deflation of the publicity balloon, when Chairman Thomas was indicted by a Federal grand jury for taking salary kickbacks from his staff. 1949

Reorganization of the committee, with Judge Wood reinstated as chairman. Limitation of membership to lawyers. Publication of many pamphlets. End of the sideshow atmosphere.

And so goes the Dies Committee, into 1950.

TOMORROW: U. S.-Red spy record—too serious to be thrilling. (NEA Service, Inc.)

Mentally Ill Children Aided

New Unit Set Up In State's System

COLUMBUS, Dec. 9—(AP)—State Welfare Director John H. Lamneck today announced establishment of the first children's unit for the mentally ill at a state hospital.

It will be located at the Longview State hospital in Cincinnati and will be able to care for up to 60 children between the ages of six and 15. The first patients are expected about January 15.

Admission to the children's unit will be limited to mentally ill persons who fall in either of two categories:

(1) Those who have been examined and studied at the Bureau of Juvenile Research in Columbus, or at an equivalent facility, and have been recommended for such hospitalization; and

(2) Those whose transfer to the children's unit has been recommended by the superintendent of the Longview State hospital and upon the order of the commissioner of mental hygiene.

Direct applications for admission may be filed with the commissioner of mental hygiene after the child has been examined at the bar or an equivalent facility. When the commissioner authorizes the child's admittance, the probate court having jurisdiction over the child shall commit him to the children's unit.

Lamneck said mentally ill children are now admitted to state mental institutions with adults with no regard to their age.

Creation of the children's unit followed a study made by Dr. Calvin L. Baker, commissioner of mental hygiene; Dr. Lowell O. Dillon, assistant commissioner, and Dr. E. A. Baber, superintendent of the Longview State hospital, Lamneck said.

Of the new children's unit, the welfare director commented: "This is an experimental move, and if it proves successful, we will enlarge the Longview unit and establish similar units in other state hospitals."

The U. S. Bureau of Reclamation estimates 16,840,000 more acres could be irrigated in western states.

Weather Details

(International News Service) Ohioans will have warmer weather today but the temperatures will continue to give their gas lines, city streets and car batteries a hard time.

"The mercury may climb a little about the freezing mark today," Forecaster C. G. Andrus explained, "but it will probably fluctuate around the 30-degree point."

"It will be warmer than last night," Andrus continued, "with the lowest reading tonight around 22 degrees. The mercury will climb higher Saturday."

A wet or snowy weekend seems likely, he added. The department of highways reported slippery roads in an area bounded by Lisbon, Millersburg and St. Clairsville. Roads in the vicinity of Cleveland, Ravenna and Warren are also treacherous in spots, as are the secondary highways bounded by Sandusky, Bucyrus, Wooster and Piquette.

Police Warned On Search Warrants

ALLIANCE, Dec. 9—Municipal Court Judge Harry Wyckoff has cautioned Alliance police that "he has a strict attitude toward unlawful searches and seizures and that he will not permit anyone to violate the protection offered by the Constitution of the United States."

The warning was given when Judge Wyckoff fined 10 men $115 and costs on charges in connection with gambling.

Prior to the judge's statement,

Attorney J. B. Blumenstiel said that police who made the arrests raided a charter club without first obtaining proper search warrants.

The court admonished police to conduct such operations within the frame of the constitution by obtaining search warrants.

Health To You

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.

Dizziness, Ear-Ringing Common in Older People

THERE are many possible causes for "dizzy" spells, of which a condition known as Meniere's syndrome is only one. More common in older people, Meniere's syndrome is used to describe a group or set of symptoms rather than a disease.

For a long time the term "Meniere's syndrome" was used loosely for several different kinds of diseases of the inner ear, the symptoms of which were alike in that there were attacks of dizziness or vertigo (there is a slight technical difference), ringing in the ears and increasing difficulty in hearing. More recently it was realized that various disease conditions could bring about the same symptoms.

Infection, fractures, tumors and injuries may all cause similar symptoms. Now doctors also speak of "Meniere's disease" (not syndrome) as a distinct condition. The symptoms of Meniere's disease are irregular attacks of dizziness, occasional ringing in the ears and deafness. Its cause is believed to be a dropsy in the deep portion of the ear called the inner ear, or labyrinth. This dropsical condition—accumulation of fluid—does not often develop in young people, but from the age of 45 on is increasingly common. Why it should come at all is not known.

Some patients who drink a lot of liquids find that an attack comes on a few hours afterwards—probably because of the increased accumulation of fluid in the labyrinth.

Several medical treatments, such as the use of histamine or atropin, have met with some favor and surgery also has been tried with varying degrees of success.

TO EXCHANGE GIFTS

COLUMBIANA, Dec. 9.—The Columbiana Music Study Club will hold its December meeting at the Presbyterian Church next

SET UP YULE TREE

E., Tuesday set up its 25-foot Christmas tree at the southwest corner of the public square, where a party for the children of Columbiana, New Waterford, East Fairfield and vicinity will be held Saturday afternoon, Dec. 24, to be followed by a theater party.

Art Students Aid Musical Program

A stage backdrop of lighted church windows is being prepared in the art classes for the Christmas performances by High School vocal groups.

Representing stained-glass windows, the illustrations are being enlarged on semi-transparent material and lighted from the back. Art students working on this project include: Fritz Bichsel, Nancy Dieringer, Donald Getz, Robert Hill, Thomas Judge, Frank Leone and Patty Pasco.

Designs were prepared by James Pearson, Donna Schoss and Bernice Swetey. Arthur Vaughan is arranging the lighting.

Movie To Be Shown

The Academy Award movie winner for 1947, "Miracle on 34th Street," will be shown in a High School assembly Thursday morning.

Secured by the Junior High School, the movie will be shown to first through sixth grade pupils Wednesday and seventh and eighth graders Friday. Edmund Gwynn, who plays the part of a Santa Claus, won an individual academy award in this movie.

Principal B. G. Ludwig says small lapel double red crosses, symbols of the anti-tuberculosis campaign, are being distributed this week through home room meetings.

Report cards are being issued indicating grades at the end of the second six weeks of the term. Names of students who will graduate in June are being collected for diploma processing.

Mather Says Massillon May Bolt Scholastic Conference

Resents State Champ Choice

Fur May Fly Saturday At Cleveland Session

BY FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Dec. 9.—The six-team Ohio scholastic conference meets Saturday in Cleveland—and it isn't sure whether it's due to lose a member or gain a few.

Warren, Mansfield, Canton McKinley, Alliance, Toledo Waite and Massillon make up the loop presided over by J. L. (Heinie) Beck of Warren—and a tough circuit it is in all sports.

Beck said Hamilton, Middletown, Springfield and Steubenville high schools had been invited to send representatives to the session, and that "all have expressed interest in joining."

However, state champion Massillon may drop out of the circuit.

Charles (Chuck) Mather, affable tutor of the Tigers, is a bit up in the air because the other five schools nominated the league champion—Mansfield's Tigers—as state champion. Chuck's team was beaten by Mansfield, but the state's sports writers decided Massillon deserved the title, Mansfield having lost an earlier game.

Mather is telling one and all that unless the league drops its plan to name the loop champion as state title-holder, he'll withdraw from the circuit. He says such nominations in the future may stir up more internal trouble.

Everyone "got into the act" this year when the league nominated Mansfield, with an 8-1 record, as state champion over Massillon and Canton McKinley, which had 9-1 marks.

Mather declared the league should name its own champion, and admitted Mansfield was the title-holder, but he said claiming a state-wide title was a bit presumptuous. He pointed out that there are 58 high school teams in the state, and only six of them are in the Ohio Scholastic conference.

Name O'Malley Most Valuable At Cincy

CINCINNATI, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Tom O'Malley, the pass-throwing quarterback, today was voted the most valuable player on the 1949 University of Cincinnati football team.

Pete St. Clair, the defensive fullback, was elected captain on the 1950 team.

Selection of the most valuable player and the captain had been delayed until after last Saturday's Glass Bowl game at Toledo in which the Bearcats defeated the University of Toledo.

O'Malley, a Cincinnati native, completed 108 of 225 passes during the past season for 1,617 yards. He threw 16 touchdown passes. His completion average was second best in the nation among major colleges and he was tops in yardage gained.

They had been asked by a wealthy Pennsylvania sports fan to present a large sports scroll to the Shah. But the Shah's aides said he was busy swimming and had no appointment with the athletes. They left.

Browns, 49ers Called Finest

Meet In Rubber Match Of '49 Season

The Cleveland Browns, this Sunday, will ring down the curtain on the All-America Football Conference's 1949 season, and apropos of the occasion are bringing together the finest teams in pro football in a championship encounter—the Browns and the San Francisco 49ers.

A rivalry as deep-seated and intense as that of these two great squads needs no added incentive to insure a terrific struggle—but this is the "players' game"—the "rubber game"—the championship game. Pride as well as the "crown" is at stake.

San Francisco early this year came up with a new slogan, "The '49ers in '49." That's the slogan they hope to make a reality Sunday afternoon in Cleveland's stadium. The Browns, jealous and proud of their crown, are determined to keep possession of it. The Browns and Forty-niners have met eight times and although the local team has won six of these games, they hold only a slight lead of three points in total scoring, 207 to 204.

In 1946 the two teams split. The Browns dropped the initial game 20-34 but nosed out the 49ers 14-7 in the return engagement; 1947 and 1948 saw the AAFCC champs take four games from the Westerners, two 14-7 decisions, a 37-14 event and a 31-28 thriller.

This year the "gold-diggers" gave the Browns a fancy 56-28 drubbing on the West coast, but lost in Cleveland by the narrowest of margins, 30-28.

This year's statistics again prove how evenly these squads are matched. The 49ers have racked up a total yardage of 4,793 against the Browns 4,611. On the ground the San Francisco club holds a marked advantage, 2,798 yards to 1,782, but in the air the Browns are supreme with 2,929 yards against the 49ers' 1,995.

The game will again renew the Graham-Albert, Motley-Perry, and Speedie-Beals rivalries. This set represents the finest performers pro football offers. Their play and records have dominated the league statistical results this year as they have in the past; Graham leading in total offense and passing, Perry in rushing, Albert in punting, Speedie in pass-receiving, and Beals in scoring. In addition Jim Cason of the 49ers is the punt return leader. It all adds up to the "best in football."

Kentucky Olympians Move Up In Race

Those former Kentucky collegians, now operating under the banner of the Indianapolis Olympians in the National Basketball association, have "arrived."

They were a little slow learning the tricks of the pro game, but the boys from old Kentucky have shown marked progress during the past two weeks, moving into second place in the loop's western division behind the capable Anderson Packers.

They really came into their own last night, edging the self-same Packers, 72 to 69, on the Packers' home court. That victory pulled the Olympians within three games of first place. An estimated 4,000 fans at Anderson watched the see-saw battle, in which the score was tied 17 times. Cliff Barker's basket and a free throw by Ralph Beard provided the Olympians with their margin of victory in the final minute. Center Alex Groza also contributed to the Olympians' cause, totaling 30 points.

Six ways to lessen the danger that a common cold will lay you low are illustrated above. Doctors agree that no normally active person can completely avoid exposure to cold, but much can be done to minimize the danger and to keep a cold from developing into more serious complications.

STRIKES TO SPARE

The Salem Bowling Center was awarded the 1950 city association bowling tournament at a meeting of the board of directors of the association Sunday. The tournament will be held here on March 5, 6, 11 and 12.

Entry blanks for the tourney will be in the hands of league secretaries early in January.

The directors approved a motion to give awards to the outstanding bowler of the year in each league, based on attendance, sportsmanship, increase in average and promotion of bowling. The high average bowler of the year in the association will also be given an award.

Trophies will be purchased by the association for the boys in the high school bowling league.

Cliff Todd, the big anchor man on the Fisher News team, led the entire classic league Wednesday night with a neat 633 series. His games were 194, 231 and 208. A bad tenth frame in the third game cost him an almost sure 650.

Bill Kring just missed the charmed circle Wednesday, with a 599 for Kelley Service, and Bob Dixon collected 590 for the Recreation. Bill Pauline's 568 for the Bowling Center ranked fourth for the night.

The Recreation five had the best team score, with games of 784, 893 and 963, totaling 2640. Olive Ramsey's 541 was tops in the Women's Commercial loop Wednesday, with D. Hively running a close second at 534. Hull had 517 and Primm a 501 to complete the roster of league's high scores.

Budget Slash Urged By Byrd

Wants Spending Cut Seven Billion In 1950

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Senator Byrd (D-Va.) today sought to lead the nation from the "economic primrose path of indefinite deficit financing" with a plan calling for a $7,500,000,000 slash in federal spending.

Byrd issued a statement which was virtually an abbreviated federal budget proposal for the next fiscal year, ending June 30, 1951.

It called for government expenditures of only $36,000,000,000 during that 12-month period, compared with Byrd's estimate that expenses for fiscal 1950 will total some $43,500,000,000.

Even his proposed budget, Byrd argued, would be $2,000,000,000 more than President Truman's budget for fiscal 1948—"which ended only 18 months ago."

"It can be achieved without superhuman effort," Byrd said. "It can be reached principally by foregoing nonessential increases and elimination of administrative inefficiency, extravagance and waste."

The senator issued the proposal as the latest step in his long battle to reduce government spending, which is expected to exceed income this year by more than $5,000,000,000.

He differed sharply with Mr. Truman's position that the only way to keep government income in line with outgo at this time is by raising taxes.

"To impose new taxes on top of the existing burdensome, and in many instances, almost confiscatory taxation would put us in a position where any minor business decline could easily be accelerated into a major recession," he said.

"It is apparent that the federal government is headed toward an extended era of chronic deficit spending which may continue until the public debt crushes us into national insolvency," he said.

Byrd said Congress in January has three choices:

1. Increase taxes by more than $7,000,000,000.

2. Hold the spending budget to about $36,000,000,000.

3. "Authorize expenditures totaling more than $7,000,000,000 in excess of revenue and go gayly along the economic primrose path of indefinite deficit financing."

The second choice—a balanced budget without new taxes—is the only wise one, he said.

36 Bonus Players Are Still Frozen

BALTIMORE, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Failure of the minor leagues to wipe out the bonus fule affects 36 bonus players on major league rosters representing a total outlay of some $800,000.

Added to this sizeable bundle are 185 bonus-tagged minor league players to increase the total expenditures to well above the million mark.

Leading the fight for repeal at the minor league's annual convention yesterday was Bob Carpenter, President of the Philadelphia Phils, who owns more bonus players than any other club. Staunch supporters of the rule were Warren Giles, president of the Cincinnati Reds, Fred Saigh, owner of the St. Louis Cardinals and Bill Dewitt, head of the St. Louis Browns.

Needing 45 assenting votes of the 59 leagues, or three-fourths, the proposal to repeal the rule got only 32 "yes" votes. There were 26 "no" votes and one league abstained. As a result, the bonus rule is here to stay—at least for another year.

Among higher priced players "frozen" in the big leagues are catcher Frank House, Detroit ($72,000); pitcher Johnny Antonelli, Boston Braves ($65,000); pitcher Curt Simmons, Phillies ($60,000); pitcher Frank Quinn, Boston Red Sox ($50,000); pitcher Paul Hinrichs, New York Yankees ($50,000); and outfielder Jackie Jensen, Yankees ($45,000).
